WELSH HAMPTON is a village and parish, 2½ miles E. from Ellesmere, in the Hundred of Pimhill, Ellesmere Union, and northern electoral division of the county. The church of St. Michael and All Angels is a brick structure, with octagonal tower and one bell. The living is a perpetual curacy, in the gift of Charles Kynaston Mainwaring, Esq., of Oteley Park, and incumbency of the Rev. T. M. B. Owen, B.A. The Wesleyans and Baptists have each a chapel here. Here is a National school for boys and girls. The Earl Brownlow is lord of the manor.

Letters are received through Ellesmere, which is also the nearest money-order office.
